Welcome!

Storyhouse Elders explores and challenges the societal perceptions of age and ageing and the impact of creating and experiencing art in later life. At Storyhouse we believe everyone is an artist and it is never too late to try something new, return to a creative passion from the past and to experience and celebrate the work of older artists. As a society we have much to learn from the older members of our community and creativity is the perfect vehicle to share and connect.

About the Storyhouse Elders Focus Group

This is the first ever Storyhouse Elders focus group. A committed bunch of people aged 50-85 who are volunteering their time to make decisions, act as a sounding board, and go watch and listen to stuff that they would like to see appear on the programme at Storyhouse. This group of people who represent different groups and communities from across Chester will be meeting regularly over the next 12 months.

Visiting the building

Storyhouse is open from 8am – 11pm on Mondays to Saturdays and 9.30am to 11pm on Sundays.

Our address is Storyhouse, Hunter Street, CH1 2AR.

Travelling to Storyhouse

By Bus

There are lots of bus routes that journey into Chester city centre and Storyhouse is around six minutes walk from Chester Bus Interchange, providing easy access from destinations such as Liverpool, Ellesmere Port, and Wrexham. Service 200 Shopper Hopper is circular bus service from the interchange, stopping outside Storyhouse 9.30am – 4pm Mondays to Saturdays.

By Park & Ride

Chester's Park & Ride scheme offers two cross-city services to the city of Chester and the surrounding area. Tickets cost £2 (return) per adult and under 16s can travel free if accompanied by a paying adult.

By Rail

Chester Railway Station has direct routes to Cheshire, Wales, Manchester, London and Merseyside amongst others and is approximately a 20 minute walk from Storyhouse.

By Car

Storyhouse is on Hunter Street in Chester city centre, CH1 2AR (near to the Town Hall and Chester Cathedral). Much of the area surrounding the building is pedestrianised with narrow streets.

The nearest car park to Storyhouse is Market Car Park, CH1 2HS (8 disabled spaces, 200 metres from Storyhouse). There is free on street parking/car park for blue badge holders on Hamilton Place and Goss Street (4 hours max) – c.300 metres away.

You can also drop-off outside the building on Hunter Street – 20 metres away.

By Bike

If you plan to cycle to Storyhouse, there are multiple cycle racks just outside the main entrance.

Access

Here at Storyhouse, we aim to make a space for everyone.

We are always thinking of ways in which we can improve your visit and welcome any feedback to help us do so.

If you require any help with booking tickets or can't find the information you need below, you can call our booking line on 01244 409 113 (option 1 and then option 3) or email ticketing@storyhouse.com

Sensory Art Installation

Storyhouse Souvenir Shop

The great British seaside holiday came into its heyday in the post war years until the 1960s and Storyhouse Elders celebrates the wonderfully diverse childhood memories of trips to the coast.

Throughout the festival you'll find a seaside themed booth to transport participants to their favourite coastal town. Have a chat and recall fond memories of the seaside.

Plus! Pick up a postcard and write or draw a memory or create a stick of rock to be displayed in the Little Storyhouse Souvenir Shop.

Workshops in The Kitchen

Everyone is an artist, so come along - no experience needed.

All materials will be provided for all three workshops.

Mindful Pebble Painting

A painting workshop with members of the library team

Join Katie from the library team for a session of mindful pebble painting where you will create and execute designs for your stones using acrylic paint.

Create a Bath Bomb

A craft workshop with artist Estelle Woolley

Creating art isn't just about painting pictures. In this workshop join local artist Estelle Woolley where she will be teaching you how to make a seaside inspired bath bomb. Enjoy a sensory experience mixing ingredients such as sea salt and Epsom salts. Choose your favourite essential oil to add to your mix – perhaps something for relaxation such as lavender or chamomile, or something to uplift your mood, such as lime or orange. Add some extra luxury to your bath time with dried flowers such as rose petals. You will shape the mixture into fun seashell moulds to be reminded of the seaside.

Estelle is a Chester based artist and maker who uses natural materials to make her creations with. She studied Fine Art at The University of Chester and has 12 years experience of running art and craft workshops in the community.

Card Craft Workshop

A craft workshop with artist Clare Owens

A workshop inspired by the seaside and holidays. Design and make a set of greetings cards using materials found on the beach. Clare will support you to enjoy this slow paced, mindful making experience. The finished product can be used to send a letter to a friend or be used as a mini piece of art.

Childhood Stories Read Aloud

An intergenerational event for school children and older people

In this unique event we will be celebrating the simple but most incredible positive impact that intergenerational reading aloud has on both the reader and the listener.

This event has been inspired by charity Silver Stories, where children (known as Silver Readers) call a Silver Listener (older person) every week to read a short story or poem to. However, for this in-person event at Storyhouse we have decided to give adults a chance to read aloud too.

Come along to this event if you love to listen to a story...

Haylo Theatre Presents: Spice of Life

A funny, thought-provoking piece of storytelling that challenges society's approach to old age.

It serves to give voice to the marginalised. This performative presentation will encourage conversation and engage audiences in a discussion about the importance of our older generation. Breaking down stereotypes and celebrating the individual, Haylo Theatre Company reframes the stories of older people into a performance that provides meaning and confirmation.

Haylo Theatre is a two-woman theatre company who use the arts to explore and engage with issues affecting communities. Their work serves to highlight key issues within areas of health and social care by generating conversations. They bring together students, professionals and the public to create a safe space for dialogue.

Stories and Drama with Storyhouse Youth Theatre

A pilot project with 5-7 year olds

You are invited to join Storyhouse's 5-7s youth theatre group. Please bring your favourite book from your childhood and a prop that represents you. You will be paired with one of our 5-7s who will also bring in a book and an object to share with you.

You will be guided in this session to share stories and create work together. This session is for you if you like storytelling and meeting/talking with primary aged children.

The workshop will be facilitated by the Storyhouse Youth Theatre leader Cassie John-Baptist and if it is successful they could be an opportunity to work with the group as part of a bigger, intergenerational theatre project.

Real Life Stories

A unique event to hear stories in conversation style with some remarkable older people living in Chester.

During 2022 Storyhouse Community Programme Manager Nicola Haigh visited some of Chester's residential care homes, day care centres and groups designed for older people. Nicola's mission was to hear real life stories from a generation whose stories are rarely celebrated.

At this event Storyhouse Elders gives the stage to our communities nigh-forgotten older heroes. Come and listen to some of the astonishing people who live in Chester.

Garret Theatre

Speakers include:

Ken Stacey
age 85

During World War Two Ken attended St Johns school and later Walpole Grammar School in Ealing, London. At the age of 16 he moved onto Vindicatrix Sea Training School, in Gloucestershire before entering the Merchant Navy as a Deck Boy. Ken went on to become a Captain, in a career in the shipping and port industries spanned 52 years. His experiences are remarkable

Kate Rayner
age 52

Founder and Chair of the Chester Chapter of Cycling Without Age

Kate will tell the story of how she discovered the initiative, fundraised for two trishaws (a small, light vehicle with three wheels for carrying people pedalled by the operator) and is now meeting people every week and giving them an immense amount of freedom, fresh air and good times.

Joy France
age 65

Joy discovered her creativity and passion for performance poetry in her mid-50s and says "having learned to ignore the doubting voices in my head, I have now found my own voice and will never again be silenced."

When Joy dared to enter the brutal world of battle rap she had no idea that it would change her life forever, it was also how she met UK rapper Skully. Now, Joy and Skully are best friends and together work on many creative projects - a most unlikely and special friendship and creative partnership.

Spoken word, music, rap, storytelling but not like you have seen before.

Dominoes and Dahlias (+Oware!)

a theatre performance by the Royal Exchange Theatre

Today we welcome our friends from the inspiring Elders programme at the Royal Exchange Theatre, Manchester to perform at Storyhouse for the first time. They believe (and we agree here at Storyhouse) that "Elders aren't just older – they're wiser. In a good society, older people are respected for their experience, for their knowledge and for everything they can teach us."

Where can you meet a woman artist from 1922 Benin, a feisty Ghanian student nurse standing up to a blinkered matron in 1971, and a Jamaican lad going on holiday and suddenly finding himself facing a throng of brothers and sisters he never knew existed? Join the Dominoes and Oware tournament, with music, this is one garden party not to be missed! Dominoes and Dahlias [+ Oware!] has been created with older people from the African and African Caribbean diaspora led by artist Cheryl Martin with musician Clive Hunte.

This show will include Live Captions which means there will be subtitles running on a TV screen. This makes the show accessible for people who are Deaf, deaf or hard of hearing.

About The Royal Exchange Theatre Elders Programme:

The Elders is for older people in Greater Manchester who want to feel connected to new people and ideas, be creative and challenge the stereotypes of ageing.

The Royal Exchange Theatre Elders programme is funded by The Rayne Foundation.

"I am not the same person who joined The Elders on that very first day.

Nothing else I do in my activities or, indeed, have done in the past has brought my newfound confidence I am now experiencing. I want to shout from the rooftops, 'look out world, here I come.' And if I can do it, so can you."

Multi- Sensory Storytelling

A special opportunity to try out something a bit different. This event is for anyone who loves telling and hearing stories using treasured objects that might belong to you or others. Spend time looking, touching, smelling, listening and maybe even tasting some of the objects. This event will be run by a Storyhouse creative practitioner that works with children and adults on a daily basis to inspire and discover their creativity. You do not need to be an actor or have any specialist skills to enjoy this workshop.
